

MATTHEW JAMES CASSIN

WORLD WAR I
U.S. ARMY, 33RD DIVISION
COMPANY E, 108TH ENGINEERS

Matthew J. Cassin was born March 1, 1895. He was tall, medium build and had dark brown hair and blue eyes. He was employed by the State of Illinois as a State Criminal Officer, Joliet Northern District and living at 1648 N. Central Park Avenue when he registered for the draft on June 5, 1917.

Two months later the 108th Engineers were ordered to Camp Logan, Ft. Sam Houston, Texas, where they trained from September to May, 1918. The 108th Engineers were the first unit of the 33rd Division to be sent to Europe, leaving on May 8 for Brest, France. From there the men traveled 26 miles by freight car across the French countryside. There were "a lot of long marches, oftentimes all night with our 70 pounds of baggage." Pay was $30.00 a month.

Duties of an Engineer:

"Be prepared to construct temporary or permanent bridges of iron, steel, masonry, or concrete.

"Be able to demolish bridges and fortifications, construct and demolish railroads, to build roads under all conditions of terrain, construct sewage and water works and electrical plants, design and build various required structures and machinery, act as infantry when required, survey terrains and make maps thereof.

"This work comes under the head of topography and reconnaissance. Generally this work must be done in the shortest space of time under condition of fire."

August 8, 1918 saw the beginning of the Somme offensive in France, which broke the German line at Chipilly Ridge and Gressaire Wood. And on August 12, Private Matthew Cassin was listed on the daily report as having been killed in action.

Six weeks later, the Chicago Tribune listed "American Overseas Casualties", and included a picture of "Private Matthew J. Cassin. The accompanying article states, "A letter received yesterday by Mrs. Elizabeth Cassin of 1648 North Central Park Avenue, conveyed the information that her son...had been killed in action. He was performing night construction work in some newly captured territory close to the German lines when caught in an enemy barrage."

On January 1, 1921, the Chicago Tribune noted that funeral services were held for some of the Chicago boys who died in France, and listed Matthew, among others.

"The 33rd Division, known as the "Prairie Division", served in all five armies and twelve corps, being the only division of the U.S. Army to fight under the British, French and American commands.

"The engineers saw service before any other regiment and built 4,000 meters (about two and a half miles) of road ... near Amiens, which permitted the advance of the British cavalry. Later they distinguished themselves to the extent of being mentioned in an American communique when they worked six hours by daylight under fire building a 156 foot bridge at a point where the ice-cold Meuse was sixteen feet deep.

"This division's standing as compared with that of other divisions of the U.S. Army is as follows: it was sixteenth to reach France, ninth in the number of kilometers advanced against the enemy, fourth in the number of prisoners captured, twentieth in the number of men killed in action, and twelfth in the number of men wounded. It was one of the five divisions rated 'first class' by the Germans."

On a lighter note, one of the members of the 108th Engineers told how their division treated enemy prisoners: "One large batch of the enemy was taken prisoner on the the Somme front. They cut all the buttons off their pants. The men had to hold their pants up by hand--they couldn't fight or run... No buttons no fight."

"Comment was caused by the absence of decorations for members of the artillery brigade, the 108th engineer regiment, and other units. The only recognition the engineering regiment received by way of decoration during the war was one French war cross and two British military crosses.

This is an excerpt from a proclamation issued by the Governor of Illinois upon the return of the 33rd Division after the war:

"The Prairie Division sailed for European battlefields in May of 1918. Almost at once it went into the battle line. And until the Armistice was signed, it saw the hardest and most dangerous service to be found. It won imperishable renown on a score of battlefields. It never lost a battle. It never was assigned an objective which it did not reach at the appointed time. England, France and Belgium vied with one another to do honor to this Division. It returns with a spotless record, bringing new fame to Illinois. And yet, it does not all return. More than a thousand of its number sleep on foreign soil."

JOHN JAMES CASSIN

WORLD WAR II
STAFF SERGEANT
1610 SCU HS MP CO.

Born 9 June 1897, John J. Cassin was 5'8", 170 lbs., with grey eyes and grey-brown hair. He had attended Harriet B. Stowe in Chicago through the eighth grade. It was 1911 when he left school. He lived at 1648 Central Park Avenue in Chicago with his mother Elizabeth Mueller Cassin. In the record, his mother is listed as his dependent.

Before the war, his civilian occupation was Manager, Credit & Collection for the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific Railroad in Chicago. He managed the credit and collection department of the railway system; supervised five people in the office; investigated applicants for credit rating; and handled bonds posted by customers as security for payment of charges.

On 19 Sep 1942 at age 45, he was inducted into the Army at Camp Grant, Illinois; and he entered active service 3 Oct 1942. He was a Staff Sergeant with the 1610 SCU HS MP Co. at Camp McCoy, Wisconsin and served as a Railway Dispatcher. His duties were to direct movements of trains over a military railroad within a prescribed area such as a division; maintain records of train movements, including time of arrival and departure, and reschedule during emergencies.

On 13 May 1945, he received an honorable discharge at Ft. Sheridan, Illinois. He was issued a lapel pin and given a payment of $115.94, which included $1.30 travel pay. He chose to continue his life insurance coverage at $4.95 per month.

In civilian life he was a Demurrage Inspector for the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific Railroad in Chicago. As such, he travelled for the railroad supervising car service and demurrage. He made periodic audits and collections, and instructed agents to make reports. At this time he lived at 2269 N. Kedzie Blvd.

On 22 Dec 1947, almost a year after his mother died, John James Cassin passed away at Lutheran Deaconess Hospital. He is buried in Waldheim (now Forest Home Cemetery) with his father, mother, brother Matthew, and his grandparents (the Muellers). He is mentioned in the Cook County Roll of Honor, which lists servicemen who are buried in Cook County.

CASSODAY, John B., jurist, was born in Herkimer county, N. Y., July 7, 1830, son of Dennis Cassoday, who died when his son John was a mere lad. The boy removed, with his mother and her parents, to Tioga county, Penn., settling first at Charleston and later at Middlebury. His education was received at Wellsboro Academy, the Knoxville (Penn.) Academy, and at Alfred academy in Allegany county, N. Y., where he was graduated in 1855. Taking a year of special work in the University of Michigan, in 1856, he entered the law school at Albany, N. Y., after which he returned to Wellsboro, Penn., and entered the law office of A. P. Cone. In July, 1857, he removed to Janesville, Wis., where he studied with Harmon S. Conger, ex-congressman from New York. He was admitted to the bar in 1857. He practised in the firm of Bennett, Cassoday & Gibbs, until 1866, and after two years alone he formed the firm of Cassoday & Merrill, which became Cassoday & Carpenter in 1873. He was a delegate to the Baltimore convention which renominated Abraham Lincoln, in 1864, and was a member of the Wisconsin house of representatives in 1865 and 1877, in the latter year being elected speaker of the house. He was a delegate to the national Republican convention in 1880, and was chairman of the Wisconsin delegation. He declined the circuit judgeship in 1870 and the attorney generalship of the state in 1873. On the death of Chief Justice Ryan, in 1880, Gov. Smith appointed Associate Justice Cole chief justice, and Cassoday was appointed associate justice to succeed Cole.

CASSIN, John, ornithologist, b. near Chester, Pa., 6 Sept., 1813; d. in Philadelphia, Pa., 10 Jan., 1869. He became a resident of Philadelphia in 1834, and, after several years spent in mercantile pursuits and in official duties, devoted the remainder of his life to the study of ornithology. He contributed descriptions of new species of birds, and synoptical reviews of various families, to the Philadelphia academy of sciences. He is the author of the article on "Birds" in "Outlines in General Zoology" (New York, 1851), and "Descriptions of all North American Birds not given by Former American Authorities" (Philadelphia, 1858), containing descriptions of fifty species not given by Audubon. Much of his work is contained in the U. S. government reports, and in that connection he wrote "Ornithology of the U. S. Exploring Expedition" (Washington, 1845); "Ornithology of Gillies's Astronomical Expedition to Chili" (1855); "Ornithology of the Japan Expedition" (1856); and the chapters on rapacious and wading birds in the "Explorations and Survey for a Railroad Route from the Mississippi to the Pacific Ocean" (1858). His works are valuable for the description and classification of many birds not given in the previous works of Audubon and Wilson.

JOHN B. CASSODAY.

MADISON, WISCONSIN.

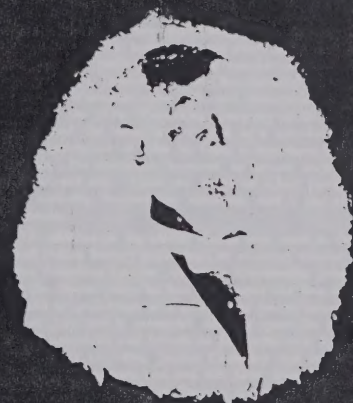

JOHN B. CASSODAY, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, born in Herkimer county, New York, July 7, 1830. About the father died and he and his mother moved with her parents to Pennsylvania. He began life as poor as the poorest of boys, but by industry, good judgment and well-directed ambition which of the poorest lawyers of Wisconsin carried him successfully through the struggle. Besides occasionally attending district school, working for his board, he attended one term at the village academy and one term at the Wellbush Academy before he was the next four years he was engaged in various occupations, occasionally teaching in the winters. He afterward attended the Academy of Knoxville, Pennsylvania, and two years the Academy of New York, at which he was graduated. He then attended the University of Michigan, where he spent one year, taking the law, and was supplemented by a short term at the Albany Law School, a law office at Wellbush, Pennsylvania. Desiring to see the world, he went west in 1857 and settled in Janesville, Wisconsin, where he entered the law office of Conger, afterward Judge of the Twelfth Judicial Circuit, and pursued his law studies, when he became a member of the firm of Bennett, Cassoday & Gibbs, seven years. He was ambitious and full of energy; and with a manly self-reliance, integrity of purpose and determination to succeed in life, both as a lawyer and a citizen, he took his place and was soon recognized as the peer of his brethren at the bar. From 1866 to 1868 he was alone in his practice. At the latter date the firm of Merrill was formed and was continued for five years, when Mr. Merrill retired. The firm was succeeded by the firm of Cassoday & Carpenter, which continued in business until appointed to the Supreme Bench, November 11, 1880.

As a lawyer, Justice Cassoday was one of the brightest and most successful. From the outset of his career he showed a clear, analytical mind, well balanced, but the success he obtained could come only from downright hard study and practice. He was devoted to his profession, thorough and methodical in the preparation of his cases, skilled and judicious in their management, always true to his client and equally to the court, intensely anxious to succeed, but always just and courteous to his opponent, nothing for granted, but went to the bottom of every question, and the merits of the case were brought to the surface. In his arguments his manner of presenting each particular case and his complete mastery of the law, his rare power and caused him to be listened to by court, jury and the public with attention and sincerest respect. His practice was general, and during his tenure of office he was constantly crowded with business.

Cassin, John. Pa., 1813-1869. A naturalist of Philadelphia whose American Ornithology is a continuation of Audubon's work on that subject. Other works of his are Ornithology of the Japan Expedition; Mammalogy and Ornithology of the Wilkes Exploring Expedition; Illustrations of the Birds of California, Texas, etc.; A General Synopsis of North American Ornithology. Lip.

ISAAC SHARPLESS CASSIN.

PENNSYLVANIANS may boast of having in ISAAC S. CASSIN one of the most eminent hydraulic engineers in America. He has constructed more water-works than any other individual in the United States, and is the originator of many approved methods of construction. He is recognized as an authority on all matters pertaining to hydraulic engineering and mechanics, and no man, probably, has been more frequently called upon as an expert in various enterprises requiring the services of a skilled mechanical and hydraulic engineer.

The Cassins are of Scotch-Irish descent, and have furnished several men who have distinguished themselves in the army and navy. Captain John Cassin, U. S. N., was appointed from the merchant service lieutenant in the navy, November 12, 1799, and died a post-captain, March 24, 1822. He commanded the naval forces stationed in the Delaware for the protection of Philadelphia in the war of 1812. His son, Stephen, entered the navy as a midshipman, February 21, 1800, and died a commodore, August 29, 1857. He served with distinction in the war with Tripoli, commanded the "Ticonderoga" in MacDonough's victory at Lake Champlain, and was rewarded by Congress with a gold medal for bravery in that action. He was also a terror to the pirates who, in the beginning of the present century, infested the West Indies, a number of whose vessels he destroyed.

John Cassin, a grandnephew of the commodore, was a distinguished ornithologist. He contributed descriptions of many new species of birds to the proceedings and journals of the Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences, and was the author of several works on ornithology. His "Birds of California and Texas" contain descriptions and colored engravings of fifty species not given by Audubon. He contributed largely to the publications of the Smithsonian Institute, and was a correspondent of many of the most eminent scientific men in both Europe and America.

The progenitor of the family in America was Joseph Cassin, who emigrated from Queen's County, Ireland, and settled in Philadelphia in 1725. Among his sons were John and Luke; the former being the captain in the navy above mentioned, the latter the grandfather of the subject of this sketch. Luke Cassin married Ann Worrell, of Delaware county, Pa., who bore him a son named Thomas, who married Rachel Sharpless and became the father of nine children, whose names are given in "The History of Delaware County." Among his sons were John, the distinguished ornithologist, and Isaac S., the eminent engineer, of whom this sketch directly treats.

Isaac S. Cassin was born, July 29, 1826, near Media, Delaware county, Pa., and after receiving a liberal education at the Friends' School at Westtown, Chester county, and from private tutors, he entered the machine shops of I. P.

CASSIN, Stephen, naval officer, was born in Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 16, 1783, son of Com. John Cassin. His father (1758-1822), served in the British navy and in 1774 was presented with a magnificent silver service by the underwriters of London, for having convoyed English vessels to American and other shores. He became a warm friend of Washington, who gave him an oil portrait of himself. He was appointed a lieutenant in the American navy on Nov. 13, 1799; was made master Apr. 2, 1806, and post-captain July 3, 1812. During the war of 1812 he commanded the naval forces in the Delaware river for the protection of Philadelphia; and subsequently represented that city in congress. The son became a midshipman in the U. S. navy Feb. 21, 1800, and was promoted lieutenant Feb. 12, 1807; master, Sept. 11, 1814; captain, Mar. 3, 1825, and commodore, June 25, 1830. During the war of 1812 he filled many positions of trust that required the services of a keen and fearless man; but it was not until the battle of Lake Champlain that his ability came to the attention of the government and he was awarded a gold medal by congress Oct. 20, 1814. In his "Naval History," Pres. Roosevelt said: "Com. Cassin fought his schooner most nobly. He kept walking the taffrail amid showers of musketry and grape, coolly watching the movements of the galleys and directing the guns to be loaded with canister and bags of bullets when the enemy tried to board."

CASSIN, Stephen, naval officer, was born in Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 10, 1783, son of Com. John Cassin. His father (1758-1822), served in the British navy and in 1774 was presented with a magnificent silver service by the underwriters of London, for having convoyed English vessels to American and other shores. He became a warm friend of Washington, who gave him an oil portrait of himself. He was appointed a lieutenant in the American navy on Nov. 13, 1799; was made master Apr. 2, 1806, and post-captain July 3, 1812. During the war of 1812 he commanded the naval forces in the Delaware river for the protection of Philadelphia; and subsequently represented that city in congress. The son became a midshipman in the U. S. navy Feb. 21, 1800, and was promoted lieutenant Feb. 12, 1807; master, Sept. 11, 1814; captain, Mar. 3, 1825, and commodore, June 25, 1830. During the war of 1812 he filled many positions of trust that required the services of a keen and fearless man; but it was not until the battle of Lake Champlain that his ability came to the attention of the government and he was awarded a gold medal by congress Oct. 20, 1814. In his "Naval History," Pres. Roosevelt said: "Com. Cassin fought his schooner most nobly. He kept walking the taffrail amid showers of musketry and grape, coolly watching the movements of the galleys and directing the guns to be loaded with canister and bags of bullets when the enemy tried to board. . . . Cassin handled the Ticonderoga and Capt. Pring the Linnet with the utmost gallantry and skill, and, after McDonough, divided the honors of the day." J. Fenimore Cooper said:

"Seven times the English galleys of which many were gallantly fought, closed quite near with an intent to board, but the great readiness on board the Ticonderoga beat them back and completely covered the rear of the line for the remainder of the day. So desperate were some of the assaults, notwithstanding, that the galleys have been described as several times getting nearly within a boathook's length of the schooner and their people as rising from the sweeps in readiness to spring." Later he became a terror to the pirates that infested the West Indies, and as master-commandant of the 18-gun sloop-of-war, Peacock, captured five piratical craft, Sept. 28 and 30, 1822. In 1823, with the Fox, Jackal, Gallinipper and Mosquito, he guarded the northwest coast of Cuba, convoyed a large fleet of merchantmen, captured the fast schooner Pilot, destroyed three other schooners and several piratical resorts. Com. Stephen Cassin married a daughter of of Capt. Abernethy, an English army officer killed at Detroit. He died at Georgetown, D. C., Aug. 29, 1857.

when he became a member of the law firm of Bennett, Cassoday & Gibbs. This partnership continued seven years, during which Mr. Cassoday, by his native ability, industry and perseverance, rapidly rose in his profession until he came to be recognized as one of the ablest members of the Rock county bar. For two years from 1866 he was in practice alone, then in company with Willard Merrill, now of the Northwestern Life Insurance company for five years, and after that with Ed. F. Carpenter, a half-brother of the late Senator Carpenter, until he was appointed to the supreme bench in November, 1880.

Mr. Cassoday, both as lawyer and judge has always been a hard student, with great care for details and methods, a close reasoner, an untiring worker, and unsparing of effort in the preparation of his cases. As an advocate he had few equals, because of the clearness, directness and force with which he presented a case. He was, in addition, the master of an attractive style, which rose to the plane of rhetoric when he chose to indulge in the form of speech. He was successful at the bar from the beginning, and during his twenty odd years of practice was never wanting in clients.

Since the organization of the Republican party there has been no more consistent, earnest and zealous adherent of it than Mr. Cassoday. He was a delegate to the Baltimore convention in 1864 that nominated Lincoln for election, and was a member of the committee on credentials. The same year he was elected to the legislative assembly, serving on the judiciary and railroad committees. The thirteenth amendment to the national constitution was presented for ratification at that session and he took an active part in the debate on its passage. In 1876 he was again elected to the assembly, was chosen its speaker, and his ability and tact in that position resulted in one of the shortest and most effective sessions in the history of the state. He was a delegate-at-large to the Republican national convention in Chicago in 1880, and was chairman of the delegation. He presented to the convention the name of E. B. Washburn as a candidate for the nomination for president, in a dignified, eloquent and powerful speech; but it was seen on the second day that none of the leading candidates would be nominated, and the Wisconsin delegation, which contained some of the ablest Republicans in the state, decided that at the proper moment the vote of the state should be cast for James A. Garfield, and it was left for Mr. Cassoday to determine whether Morris & Co., as an apprentice. He served the usual term, and received much good advice and instruction from his employers. This firm was engaged in manufacturing some of the largest Cornish pumping-engines ever built for mining and water-works purposes, and Mr. Cassin was for some years afterwards employed in their introduction and construction. He served for a term as Chief-Engineer of the United States Mint in Philadelphia, and, in 1856, was appointed Engineer of the Spring Garden Water-Works of that city. In 1862 he was elected Chief-Engineer of the Water-Works of the City of Philadelphia, and during his administration effected many improvements. He put in place and started the three Turbine wheels next to the forebay at Fairmount, and in one of his annual reports recommended the building of a vast distributing reservoir, similar to but larger than that which has just been completed in East Fairmount Park. Subsequently he served as engineer of the Philadelphia Gas-Works, and then engaged largely in the construction of water and gas-works throughout the country.

Within the last twenty-five years Mr. Cassin has constructed water-works, and has been consulting engineer in their construction, in a majority of the States of the Union, including California, and also the Canada, and has been invariably successful in all his undertakings. In the vicinity of Philadelphia we may mention the water-works at Chester, Pa.; the reservoirs at Wilmington, Del.; the water-works at Oxford, Pa.; those at Media and Westchester; those at Wayne, Coatesville, Pottstown, Conshohocken, Ashland, Phoenixville, Holmesburg, Birdsborough and Doylestown, Pa.; part of those at Norristown, Pa.; those at Newcastle, Dover, Smyrna and Newark, Del.; and the water-works at Bridgeton, Lambertville, Burlington and Salem, N. J. His establishment in Philadelphia, known as the "Union Hydraulic Works," where the machinery and various devices used in water and gas-works are manufactured, is the oldest of the kind in the United States.

Mr. Cassin is a member of the Franklin Institute and the Engineers' Club, and is one of the Commissioners for the erection of the New Public Buildings in Philadelphia. He is the author of numerous reports and essays which have been frequently quoted from in scientific journals. In religion he is a Friend, being a birthright member of the Society of Friends, and in politics he is a Democrat, and has twice represented his Congressional district in National Conventions.

On October 10, 1850, Mr. Cassin was married to Emily, daughter of John M. Hunter, and has had six children, of whom two sons (John and Isaac S., Jr.) and Cassin, Stephen, naval officer, was born Feb. 16, 1783, in Philadelphia, Pa. He served in the war with Tripoli; he commanded the Ticonderoga in Maedonough's victory on Lake Champlain, and was rewarded by congress with a gold medal for bravery in that action. He was a terror to the pirates that infested the West Indies; and captured four of their vessels in 1822. He died Aug. 29, 1857, in Georgetown, D.C.

that time had come. On the thirty-fourth ballot he declared to his fellow-delegates that the time had come for breaking the dead-lock and announced the vote of Wisconsin for Garfield, amid intense excitement. The second ballot thereafter Garfield received the nomination. From the time of his coming to the state, Justice Cassoday had taken an active part in all important political campaigns, making able and effective speeches, devoted to the discussion of the questions at issue between the parties, but never descending to mere partisan harangues. Yet he was not an office-seeker, though frequently a delegate to state conventions, and in positions where he might have secured nominations had he so chosen. He declined all offices, however, when tendered, though among them were those connected with his profession, such as attorney-general and circuit judge.

Chief Justice Ryan of the supreme court died in October, 1880, creating a vacancy in that court. Immediately the Rock county bar addressed a petition to Gov. Smith asking the appointment of Justice Cassoday to the vacancy, and this petition was followed up by personal letters to the governor from such prominent persons as Senator Carpenter, Willard Merrill and by most favorable notice from the public press. Justice Cassoday then

JAMES CASSIN.

James Cassin, who in former years was active as a public official and as a real estate man, came to Utah in 1863 a young man of but twenty years and is now living retired, making his home in Ogden. He was born in Waltham, Vermont, September 5, 1843, and is a son of William and Catherine (Tracy) Cassin. At the breaking out of the Civil war he served with the Second Vermont Regiment but when called to Washington he with several others were rejected on account of age and size, the colonel saying to them "They go back to the farms and work awhile; you are too small and young. Mr. Lincoln called for men and boys."

Somewhat discouraged Mr. Cassin made his way to California by the routes of Panama route and while there engaged in mining on the Feather river and at Flacerville. Later while in Nevada on the Comstock in Gold Hill and during the prosperous days of Virginia City was with his brother, Thomas Cassin, an old "Forty-Niner." From there he went to Salt Lake City, meeting Marvin Eddy, who was prospecting in the interest of Walker Brothers in the Ophir mining district. They returned to Nevada the following spring and remained there until 1867, when another boom was started in the White Pine district, well known to all old miners.

In the spring of 1868 Mr. Cassin entered the employ of the Central Pacific Railroad, then under construction, and was at Promontory at the time of the driving of the Golden Spike, which united the two terminals of the railroad, making a transcontinental line. He was conductor on the train which was held up and robbed January 21, 1863, and mentioned in that position until 1867. He was then called to public office, being elected on the liberal ticket to the position of assessor and collector of Ogden, Utah, in which capacity he served for two years. He was then appointed chief deputy United States marshal under the administration of President Benjamin Harrison, the appointment coming from Colonel L. A. Beeson, United States marshal. He acted in that capacity for two years, or until Grover Cleveland was elected to the presidency, when he left the position and turned his attention to the real estate business, in which he continued actively and successfully until 1904, when he put aside all business cares and has since lived retired.

In 1873 Mr. Cassin was married to Miss Martha Madlock, a daughter of Orin and Ann (Hitchcock) Madlock, who were pioneer settlers of Utah, arriving in this state in 1845. To Mr. and Mrs. Cassin have been born three children: Ida Marie, the wife of Walter W. Matheson, of Los Angeles, California; Virginia, the wife of James W. Clark of Ogden, Utah; and Elmer E., who is now a resident of Chicago, Illinois.

Mr. Cassin is a republican in his political views, casting his first vote at Abraham Lincoln's second election in 1864, and he has long given stalwart and constant support to the principles and candidates of that party. He is likewise a charter member of the Elks lodge at Ogden and has taken all the degrees of the York and Scottish Rites, and is a member of the 23 Kabak Temple of the Mystic Shrine, being a worthy member of the craft, the principles of which he has embodied in all of his relations with his fellowmen.

Cassingham, John W., manufacturer, financier, congressman, was born June 22, 1840, in Coshocton, Ohio. Until 1862 he was in the mercantile business and coal mining; then was a paper manufacturer until 1893; and now has large investments in farm property. He has been president of the Coshocton board of trade; and president of the Commercial banking company. In 1896 he was a delegate to the national democratic convention. In 1901-05 he was a representative from Ohio to the fifty-seventh and fifty-eighth congresses as a democrat.

sheep, some of which were disposed of at from $8 to $10 in that city, the price in Chihuahua having been fifty cents a head. They also sold all wagons, horses and mules that were not needed for the return trip. The three thousand remaining sheep were taken to San Francisco and sold at a good figure. However, being passionately fond of gambling, John Able risked and lost all he had made, and returned to Mexico no better off than when he left.

Remaining in Los Angeles, J. M. Castañeda was for six years connected with a large mercantile business. Next he was foreman for Abel Stearns, with headquarters at Alamitos ranch, near Los Angeles, where he remained for two years. He then started a large mercantile business at San Juan Capistrano, in California, and until 1860 was fairly successful as a trader in cattle, horses and hides. The next year he came to La Paz on the Colorado river, where he opened up business and helped to build the little town. He also engaged in business at Tubac, seven miles from Calabasas, his chief customers being the soldiers from the fort. After nine months he was obliged to leave on account of ill health. Locating in Tucson, he, in partnership with Henry Lavine, purchased for $10,000 what is now the Orendorf hotel, and for eighteen months they engaged in the manufacture of beer. However, owing to continued ill-health, he was obliged to abandon this enterprise, and, selling his interest, he returned to La Paz, where he carried on a general mercantile business for two years. In the early spring an overflow of the Colorado river drowned out the town, so he was forced to seek other quarters. Later he was interested in building up the town of Ehrenberg, and while there married Amparo Arvizo, of Sonora, Mexico. His next place of residence was at the McCracken mine, where he carried on a store for three years. Going to Phoenix, he was engaged in merchandising. A like venture was equally successful at the Contention mills for one and one-half years. Then he moved to Fairbank, Ariz., where he was a partner of J. Goldwater and Joe Guindani, later taking charge of a wholesale and retail business the firm started in Bisbee.

Casson, Herbert Newton, journalist, lecturer, author, was born in 1869 in Canada. In 1894 he founded the first labor church in America at Lynn, Mass. He is the author of The Red Light; and The Crime of Credulity.

An experience with robbers while in Bisbee dampened whatever ardor and enthusiasm Mr. Castañeda might have had for a residence in that town. In 1885 Red Tack and his gang entered the store, where Mr. Castañeda was lying ill on a bed in the rear of the building. One of the men, whom he knew, held two pistols to his head, and took a bag containing $600 in gold from under the pillow. Mr. Goldwater was then forced to open the safe, from which the robbers took $500 in gold and $200 in silver. They car-

CASSON, Herbert Newton:

Author, sociologist; born in Ontario, Canada, in 1860; son of Rev. Wesley and Elizabeth (Jackson) Casson. He was educated in Victoria College at Coburg, Ontario, and afterward entered the Methodist ministry in Canada, from which he later resigned. He founded the first labor church in America, at Lynn, Mass., in 1893, lectured on social reform in Great Britain, the United States and Canada, later editing The Coming Nation, at Ruskin, Tenn. He was an editor on the staff of the New York Journal one year, the New York World four years, afterward on the staff of Munsey's Magazine and contributing to various magazines; now member of The Emerson Company, efficiency engineers. He is also a lecturer on humane education in the New York Board of Education lecture course. Mr. Casson is author of: The Crime of Credulity; Organized Self-Help; The Races that Made America; The Romance of Steel; The Romance of the Reaper, etc. He was president of the Brooklyn Philosophical Association, 1902-1903; is charter member of the New York City Humane Society and of the Railroad Club. Mr. Casson married at Ruskin, Tenn., in 1899, Lydia K. Commander. Address: 1522 Hudson Terminal, 30 Church Street, New York City.

ried off an old Spanish coin marked with the initials of Mr. Castañeda, and this was found in the possession of one of the robbers when he was later captured. It was fortunate that the robbery occurred when it did, as ten minutes later the stage arrived with $18,000 in cash, with which the firm was to honor the checks of the employes of the Copper Queen mine. This gang was one of the worst that ever terrorized a mining locality, and there was universal relief when its members were executed in Tombstone. Their leader, on the day he was to depart for Yuma, was taken in hand and lynched by an infuriated mob. Mr. Castañeda remained for ten years in Bisbee, and finally left because of a devastating fire which destroyed his store and contents, causing a loss of $85,000. In 1890 he purchased the Virginia hotel in Benson, which he operates. In 1894 he embarked in the mercantile business here, and this he still conducts, the active management of the store being in the hands of his eldest son, M. F. Castañeda. He also owns a store originally belonging to his partner, Mr. Goldwater, besides some lots in Benson and one hundred and sixty acres adjoining the town. The hotel is the best in town, and is conducted on wholesome and up-to-date lines. The rates are $2.50 a day, the service excellent, and the house well patronized.

Although a Republican in politics, Mr. Castañeda has never been active in public affairs; and, having always lived under territorial government, has not yet had the privilege of voting for a president of the United States. Himself and family are members of the Roman Catholic Church. Fraternally he is associated with the Workmen in New Mexico and Arizona, and is a charter member of Tombstone Lodge No. 3. He and his wife had ten children: Miguel, Edward, Rudolph, Josephine, Henry, Ida, Carlos, Aurelia, Alphonso and Louis, the latter of whom died at Tombstone. The children have had the benefit of good educations. The two eldest sons are graduates of San Miguel College, at Santa Fe, N. M.; Josephine is a graduate of the Sisters of Mercy College, Phoenix, Ariz.; Rudolph and Henry will graduate in the class of 1901 from the Arizona University at Tucson; Ida is now a student in the Sisters of Mercy College at Phoenix; and Carlos, Aurelia and Alphonso attend the public school in Benson.

Letter: Let bikes in skate park

Tuesday, January 01, 2002

By JOHN CASSIN

New Whiteland

Jan. 2, 2002

To the editor:

I have been a big supporter of Greenwood for many years. Being a small-business owner, I have been privileged to work with some of Greenwood Community High School's finest students. In doing so, I've met many of their friends who were bikers and skateboarders.

Through the summer, I was able to watch as they rode their bikes or skateboards in the parking lot. I was amazed at how talented these kids are. In June, one of the bikers approached me for help in getting lumber for a ramp they want to build for the Fourth of July festival. At this time, I learned of their dream of getting their own area to bike and skateboard. I was all for it because it was such an opportunity for all kids who loved to skate or bike.

I thought everything was moving along just fine, especially when the mayor gave his approval. Now I've learned that someone has decided that it will be for skateboards only (Daily Journal, Oct. 19). How can this happen when the bikers worked so hard to get it?

Greenwood has one of the finest outdoor amphitheaters around and a new library that will be second to none. We have some of the finest ball diamonds, parks and golf courses. We have Little League, which is great for the ones who like team sports, but how about the loner who is just as good on a bike or a board? Why do we have to settle for second best on a bike and skateboard park?

People complain because teens don't have a place to go. I say, if we are going to do this, let's do it the way it was intended: bikers and boards. Let's not let our youth down.

Medal winners look forward to Barcelona in 2003

Sunday, June 17, 2001

By WYNITA WORLEY

Daily Journal staff writer, wworley@thejournalnet.com

June 18, 2001

Johnson County claimed nine silver and gold medals at the World Police and Fire Games before closing ceremonies Saturday.

But the 21 athletes from various police and fire agencies also brought home plans to attend the 2003 games in Barcelona, Spain.

Nearly all of the athletes competing in the games said the camaraderie and level of competition among other police officers and firefighters would be worth traveling to Spain.

"The talks have been made," Franklin firefighter Mike Hodge said laughing. Hodge placed fifth in his class of bow hunters.

"(The chief) is all for it, and he said he would back us on it," Hodge said.

Greenwood Police Chief Al Hessman is already preparing for a barrage of time off requests from his officers.

"I have a feeling I'm going to have some (officers) say, 'Barcelona's coming up. What can you do to help us get there?'" Hessman said Friday.

Hessman spent Friday at the 3-on-3 basketball game cheering on Officer Paula Petty's team. He said he was proud that eight officers from his department participated in the games from June 7 to 16.

"It's given us a lot of recognition," Hessman said. "We have received an education as to how things are done in other parts of the world."

Officers Jade Hirt and Dan Skeel and Sgt. Stephen Jackson entered the golf contest in the games hosted in Indianapolis.

Sgt. Randy Werden of the sheriff's department played as an individual and teamed up with Skeel for partners competition.

Although the police officers didn't win any awards, Werden said the chance to play some exclusive golf courses like the Brickyard Crossing, Fort Harrison and Eagle Creek was exciting.

Greenwood Officer Rex Saltgaver, 35, said he underestimated how good his competition was in the 200- and 800-meter runs. Saltgaver made the semifinal round in the 200-meter sprint. He was only four seconds away from qualifying for the finals.

But seeing other officers in shape helped dispel the myth that police departments don't encourage exercise, he said.

"These guys, they're the cream of the crop in track and field," Saltgaver said. "When I go to Barcelona, I'll probably go back to long-distance running.”

Medal winners were:

Sheriff J.D. Richards, Johnson County Sheriff's Department: Richards, 61, won two silver medals in bench pressing.

Candy Ashby and Jennifer Nay, Greenwood Fire Department: The part-time employees won gold medals on the women's softball team for central Indiana. The team won all six games played on June 11.

Letter: Proud to be American

Monday, September 24, 2001

By SCOTT CASSIN
Greenwood

Sept. 25, 2001

To the editor:

"There is not enough darkness in the world to put out the light of one candle" was a quote I read this morning from an unknown author of an e-mail. A terrible darkness descended upon our country on Sept. 11, 2001, in an attempt to extinguish that candle, but the candle continues to burn — and indeed will now burn even brighter.

As I drive around the city of Greenwood, I see so many things that people are doing to show their support of those affected and of this great nation. Patriotism everywhere. I see flags on cars, flags on houses, flags on poles at half-staff, flags on T-shirts, even the city has placed flags on many utility poles.

As I continue around town, I see drop-off points for supplies and people everywhere watching televisions. It is absolutely incredible to watch people come together as one and unite in this time of national tragedy. If there is this much going on here in Greenwood, it is only unimaginable what is going on throughout the rest of the country.

It is good to see the greatness that has come from this horrific event, from the workers and volunteers helping at the various crash sites, to all the people of the nation and the world offering to help in any way they can. All of these acts of kindness and generosity have to put a warm feeling in the hearts of Americans. I know it has mine, and I know it is appreciated in ways words cannot begin to describe.

We should be proud for what we stand for as good will conquer evil and America will prevail. As a firefighter, and more importantly, a citizen of the United States, I would like to thank those who are extending aid and provide condolences to those individuals and families touched by loss. For it is times like this I am proud to be a part of this wonderful country and equally as proud to be an American.

County well-represented in World Police and Fire Games

Friday, May 04, 2001

By JENNIFER JILL FOWLER

Daily Journal Staff Writer, jfowler@thejournalnet.com

Franklin police

- Sgt. Pete Ketchum — race walking

Ketchum, a six-year veteran officer, had planned to enter the bench press competition, but a shoulder and elbow injury kept him from competing in that category.

"It gives me a reason to stay in shape," Ketchum said of the games.

- Sgt. Kerry Atwood — racquetball

Atwood, a 20-year veteran of the Franklin Police Department, first played racquetball while stationed in Germany as he served in the Army in 1979.

"I may go out there and get my butt kicked, but to play against competition of that caliber is a great opportunity," Atwood said.

- Sgt. Chris Tennell — orienteering

Tennell chose the unique sport of orienteering for his participation in the games. Orienteering is a form of cross country running that takes contestants through a wooded course they must navigate with only a compass.

"I have no idea what the caliber of the competition is going to be like because orienteering is a lot more popular in other countries than it is in the United States," said the 30-year-old Vincennes graduate.

Greenwood police

- Lt. Kenny Swint — Western trail horse riding, bass fishing

Thanks to his wife, who regularly shows horses, Swint will be riding a horse well-trained in the event that measures how well the animal responds to commands despite obstacles that ordinarily spook him.

"I'm not an equestrian, by any means," Swint said. "But I figure I should be able to hop on this horse and it should be able to do the course for me."

Swint also is competing in a more familiar category — bass fishing. He'll be competing in the same boat against an Australian contestant and later team up with a contestant from Ireland.

- Officer Jade Hirt — golf

Hirt, who has been at the Greenwood Police Department since 1990, is partnering with Sgt. Stephen Jackson in his first world competition.

Werden, a 14-year police veteran, also has been selected to carry a flag during the opening ceremony.

Werden said he's considering attending the 2003 games in Barcelona, Spain.

"If it's a good experience, I'd like to try and do it again somewhere else," he said.

- Deputy Eric Cox — softball

"I've been playing softball for more than 20 years," said Cox, who plays in a national tournament each year as a member of the Indiana Lawmen team.

- Sheriff J.D. Richards — bench press

Richards, 61, has competed in local bench press competitions in the past. He'll also be busy helping oversee security, traffic and other public safety issues surrounding any of the game events conducted in Johnson County.

- Jail training officer Tim White — torch bearer

White is coordinating the torch relay June 6 around Johnson County Park beginning at the Franklin Flying Field.

"It's a great thing for Johnson County," he said. "It brings in many different facets from all over the country and all over the world."

White also is participating in the opening ceremony June 9.

White River Township fire

- Scott Cassin — table tennis/ping-pong

Cassin, 32, has been playing ping-pong since he was in middle school.

"I thought that would be an opportunity to at least do something with the game that I was interested in," Cassin said. "I don't know what the competition is like worldwide, but I haven't found anybody here locally that can beat me."

"Having it right here in the back yard is great," Hirt said of having Indianapolis as the host city this year.

Hirt, 36, also is one of several area officers who will represent the 2001 World Police and Fire Games in the Indianapolis 500 parade this month.

- Officer Rex Saltsgaver – 200-meter and 800-meter run

"It's going to be competitive and it's going to be neat to be around police officers from all around the world," said the 35-year-old Greenwood Community High School graduate who runs the tread mills at the city community center daily. "I'm not looking at winning the event. But I feel that I'm fast enough to be competitive."

- Officer Michelle Richardson — softball

Richardson, 27, already is making new local contacts with teammates from the Indianapolis Police Department and the Indiana State Police.

"It's really neat," she said. "It's nice to meet all of these other officers from other agencies and get contacts."

- Officer Dan Skeel — golf

Skeel, a 14-year veteran of the department, will compete individually and partner with Sgt. Randy Werden of the sheriff's department on the course.

"I think it will be exciting just to be involved in something the whole world will be watching," said Skeel, 36.

- Officer Max Maxfield — mini-marathon, tennis

Maxfield, who has been on the Greenwood Police Department 15 years, ran the mini-marathon and played tennis in the 1983 World Police and Fire Games in Phoenix.

The best part of the race?

"The best part was the end because the Australians had about 10 cases of Fosters beer waiting for us," he said.

- Officer Paula Petty — basketball

Petty will compete in a half-court 3-on-3 basketball competition with four other officers from other police departments throughout the state.

"It's a once-in-a-lifetime deal," said Petty, 32. "I just want to be in the environment. I've been playing basketball forever. This was just an opportunity to wear the Greenwood badge and represent the community."

Greenwood fire

- Firefighter Sean Santerre — torch bearer

Santerre, a 26-year-old Center Grove High School graduate who has been a firefighter for eight years, will run a portion of the two-mile trek around Greenwood. The trek will begin at 8 a.m. June 7 from the Greenwood City Building.

"I think it's neat that I get to participate in it in the community that I live in and the community that I serve," he said.

Sheriff's department

- Sgt. Randy Werden — golf

FROM: AILEEN ZSENYUK (SJXP39A)
SUBJECT: IRE/LAND OWNERS 1876

Carol: Just want to be sure you understand that your posting came to me. My resource is NOT Ire/Land Owners 1876; but The Dublin Pictorial Guide and Directory of 1850. I did check it four Cassin. None found. However, did find CASSAN and CASSON, which were used interchangeably. There were only two: Cassan and Waring, wine merchants, at 10, 11, and 12 Fownes's Street. There is also Edward Cassin (also shown as Casson), solicitor, at 35 Dame Street. Again, the source is ONLY for Dublin and ONLY for the year 1850. Hope it helps you.

Good luck. Aileen in Michigan

Minnehaha made the last passenger voyage by a Derry-owned ship to New York. Emigrants from Derry were now carried down the River Foyle in paddle tenders to Moville where they joined the Anchor and Allan steamship liners. The Baltimore grain trade, however, enabled the McCorkell line to prosper through the 1870s and 1880s despite the loss of the passenger trade.

From 1873 to 1889 McCorkell and Co. bought seven ships, principally for the grain trade. With increasing competition from steamers and foreign sail in the late 1880s, together with the loss of five of their ships through shipwreck, it was only a matter of time before McCorkell and Co. withdrew from the Atlantic trade. The death of Barry McCorkell, Jr. in 1895 marked the end of McCorkell and Co.'s involvement in trans-Atlantic trade.

The contribution of the passenger trade to the economy of Derry was extremely important. In the first seventy years of the nineteenth century, in all probability, 200,000 passengers left Derry port by sailing ship. Perhaps 50% of these were accommodated in Derry-owned ships. The Derry-owned ships were manned, outfitted, and provisioned in Derry. The stimulus to the economy was, therefore, extensive. It is no coincidence that the height of Derry's prosperity coincided with the thriving passenger trade.

Notes on the above records

- (1) Ages are not always given.
- (2) Fuller addresses are normally given in the McCorkell lists. The address in the Cooke list is usually that of a small town, presumably the nearest town to where the emigrant actually lived.
- (3) Be careful when interpreting place names. Place names are spelt as they appeared in the original records. While every attempt has been made to identify and spell place names correctly, illegibility of the original made the reading of some names very difficult.
- (4) The McCorkell list of passengers is a list of passengers scheduled to sail from Derry but "engaged" at Philadelphia by Robert Taylor and Company.

St. Mary's graveyard, Kilkenny City, Robertson Family

Posted by Jean Rice <jeanrice@cet.com> on Sun, 25 Jun 2000

Surname: Robertson, Austin, Byrne, Bourke, Burke, Brennan, Bull, Becket, Butler, Brown, Barron, Brophy, Brien, Bradshaw, Bygroves, Bryan, Bergan, Buggy, Barlow, Burgess, Barker, Bride, Cahill, Connolly, Cannon, Cassin, Condy, Corrigan

For your information, in St. Mary's graveyard, Kilkenny city, there is an altar tomb with the names of the Robertson family on it. John Robertson died in August, 1839. He is described as "a man of immense charity." His obituary in the "Kilkenny Moderator" states: "This gentleman ranked for the last half century amongst the most eminent scientific botanists and practical horticulturists of Great Britain... In this, his native city, he was respected by all classes and beloved by the poor and destitute, to whom he was a most liberal benefactor." After his death there was an annual distribution of articles of clothing to poor Protestants and Catholics. The names of beneficiaries were published some years in the "Kilkenny Moderator." They were arranged in two lists, Protestants and Roman Catholic, and were in loose alphabetical order. The lists are said to be a useful genealogical source, particularly in the case of an unusual surname. As well as indicating the religion of each person, the address is also given in every case. Also, some individuals are clearly linked in family groups:

The following is an extract from the list of names for 1855. The item of clothing donated to each person is also included:

Source: Albert Eugene Casey, Eleanor L. Downey-Prince, and Ursula Dietrich.. Index of O'Kief, Coshe Mange, Slieve Lougher and Upper Blackwater in Ireland. 16 vols. Birmingham, Alabama: Knocknagree Historical Fund, 1952-1971. Found at the Family History Library in Salt Lake City, Utah under book call number 941.5 D2c Index, and under the following microfilm: 823801 (vols. 1-2); 823802 (vols. 3-4); 823803 (vols. 4-5); 823804 (vol. 7); 823805 (vol. 8); 823806 (vols. 9-10); 823808 (vols. 11-12); and 823809 (vols. 13-14).

The cover title notes that this compilation contains the what, when and where for the sixteen volumes on counties Cork and Kerry containing 30,000 pages, 3,000,000 personal names (indexed in each volume) with number maps of townlands, parishes, baronies, and counties. Not all of these entries have been included in this compilation at this time. However, the most important collections have been noted in the annotations below for use by researchers in pursuing additional investigations.

Volume 1: Baptisms of Rathmore Parish 1837-1874, including the parishes of Nohaval and Kilcummin, with a laguna in the records from March 1841 - January 1844. It is said that an older parish register came to pieces and disappeared. The first available register is the one just noted. There are missing pages and many names are almost illegible. This is true throughout the records of this collection. Death records from several places in County Cork and County Kerry, not recorded in this electronic collection.

Volume 2: Births, Marriages, Deaths, Barony of Duhallow; Births, Christenings 1833-1864, St. Mary's Roman Catholic parish, Boherbue. County Cork., 2:493

- Note 3. These records are not on file in this Center.
- Note 4. We suggest you contact the office shown below in order to obtain copies of the desired records.
- Note 5. The requested record has been lent to the office shown below and may be obtained by writing directly to that facility.

- ☐ The Privacy Act of 1974 does not permit the release of a social security number or other personal information to the public without the authorization of the veteran concerned; therefore, we have deleted personal identifying data relating to other persons.
- ☐ Morning reports and personnel rosters are available for most Army organizations beginning with the year 1912; however, they were discontinued in 1974. EXCEPTION: Personnel rosters for the years 1944, 1945, and 1946 were destroyed in accordance with the General Records Schedule.
- ☐ Morning reports are available for most Air Force organizations for the years 1947 through 1966.
- ☐ Morning reports generally contain the name, service number, and rank for those members of the unit who experienced a change in duty status such as discharge, death, temporary duty, absence, return from absence, reassignment, period of hospitalization, etc. They rarely show specific details about a unit's activities or movements, nor do they reflect accidents/injuries that did not result in the hospitalization of the individual(s) involved.
- ☐ Personnel rosters were prepared on a monthly, quarterly, or semi-annual basis and generally list the name, service number, and rank (but not home address) of all members assigned to the unit on the date the roster was created.
- ☐ This Center is unable to perform the extensive research you have requested because of staffing and budget limitations. If you wish to verify a specific event or personnel action, please furnish the month/year in which it occurred and we will conduct a limited search for the desired information.
- ☐ Additional information is needed in order to locate the requested records. Please provide the items indicated below and resubmit your request to this Center for a further search.
- ☐ This Center is prohibited from releasing prison records except to the U.S. Disciplinary Barracks, Fort Leavenworth, KS. We are, therefore, referring your request to the office shown below for a determination of releasability.

ON BEHALF OF

REFERRED TO NPRC BY

THE REPLY TO THE INQUIRY WILL BE FOUND IN THE CHECKED ITEM(S).

The military service information provided on this form has been extracted from records on file at this center and may be used for any official purpose, including application for and adjudication of veteran's benefits.

- ☐ This method of reply is the routine procedure used to respond to requests such as yours. If additional information is required, return your request with a detailed statement outlining the specific data needed and the purpose for which it is to be used.
- ☒ Subject person served in the Army of the United States from Oct 3, 1942 to May 13, 1945
- ☒ Type and character of separation Honorable Discharge (Staff Sgt) active service same as above to _____
- ☐ _____ was honorably retired _____ by reason of permanent physical disability incurred in line of duty, but not as a result of armed conflict or an instrumentality of war. The percentage of disability is _____.
- ☐ Report of separation physical is attached.
- ☐ The medical records/information pertaining to discharge you requested:
- ☐ Are enclosed. ☐ Are not in file.
- ☐ Have been lent to the Veterans Administration and
- ☐ Will be forwarded under separate cover. ☐ May be obtained from the VA office shown below.
(Please refer to VA Claim No. C- _____.)
- ☐ A statement of service is shown on the reverse side.
- ☒ The military record needed to answer this inquiry is not in our files. If the record was here on July 12, 1973, it would have been in the area that suffered the most damage in the fire here on that date and may have been destroyed. There are alternate record sources available:
- ☐ which can be used to verify two week periods of active duty for training (ADT) for Army and Air Force personnel; it is also possible to verify reserve service other than ADT for Army personnel only. In order to assist us, please furnish dates of reserve service or ADT or both (month, day, and year) and complete organizational assignments (company, battalion, regiment or squadron, group, wing). After receipt of the requested data, we will search all available records sources.
- ☒ but these sources do not contain the particular type of information requested. We regret that we cannot be of assistance in this matter. (genealogical data on details of his service)

Some additional info might be available in his Dept of Vet Affairs Claim File # XCO 6267336. Please contact your nearest VA office.

Home: 22 Boylston Ave Providence RI 02906 More important than talents or intelligence, luck or strength, is the knack for using these things and using weaknesses as well. This knack is a very mysterious thing. Perhaps it is no more than a determination or a strong desire to make use of the good as well as the bad. The creative process, by its nature, can't have any predetermined goals, but a faith in the infinite possibilities for shaping life tends to define and clarify the value of achievement as one goes along.

Season's Greetings

(WINONA CASSIN MALPASS)
1990?

Have a delightful—even delirious—holiday and a wonderful New Year.

Merrily,

Leslie and Winona Malpass

*Hope you've had a good year.
Leslie retires in July. Then we're going to North Carolina where we'll live in a house we've owned - in Durham. Stop in.*

*Love
L. & W.*

IN MEMORIAM

CHADWICK—In memory of our dear wife, Elizabeth, who passed away six years ago Sept. 28, 1921.
It was God's will, but in our hearts she still lives.

LATE HUSBAND.

FERGUSON—In sad and loving memory of our dear husband and our father, who departed this life today, Sept. 28, 1927.

Come, but not forgotten.
Rest in peace, thy name is sacred.
You are gone where those we love you
Soon are coming, soon we shall be reunited.

WIFE, MOTHER AND DAUGHTERS.

FRISER—In constant and loving memory of our dear son and brother, John A. Friser, who passed away four years ago today, Sept. 28, 1923.

Gently the stars are shining
Down on the silent grave.
Where lies our John,
We are loved, but could not save.
Blessed soul, rest in peace,
Daddy missed you.

MOTHER, DADDY AND BROTHERS.

GORBEL—In sad and loving memory of our dear mother, Anna Miller, who passed away one year ago today, Sept. 28, 1926.

We saw you suffer and heard you sigh,
Could do nothing but sit and cry.
We saw you sinking, hour by hour,
We did not know what to do for you.
But some day we knew not when,
We shall rise, you by the hand,
Then our sadness all will end,
For we shall meet you in the land of the living.

SONS AND DAUGHTERS.

HOPPE—In loving memory of our dear father, Henry, who passed away one year ago today, Sept. 28, 1926.

Surrounded by friends, we are kindest,
In the midst of pleasure we're blue.
A smile on our face, still a heartache,
Aching and longing for you.
There are griefs that cannot find comfort,
And the wound that cannot be healed,
There are sorrows so deep in the human heart,
That cannot be half revealed.

SONS AND DAUGHTERS.

LAUFER—Jeanie, mother, died one year ago today, Sept. 28, 1926.

Honorable and upright in all her ways,
Tender and true to the end of her days.
A loving wife and mother, gentle and kind,
What beautiful memories she left behind.
For all on earth she did her best,
Until God gave her eternal rest.
DAUGHTER, SON AND GRANDCHILDREN.

TAYLOR—In loving remembrance of our darling Jean, who went to live with Jesus in the early dawn today, Sept. 28, 1926.

A little girl, tender and pure,
Upon this earth to roam.
So God just sent an angel down,
And took our dear Jean home.
Keep her dear spirit for Thy arms,
And let her forever be
A messenger of love
Between our broken hearts and Thee.

MOTHER, FATHER AND BROTHER.

DIED

SINKING OF BARGE AGAIN TIES UP CANAL

Cargo of Sulphur Down Crossways of Route Mile East of Genesee Near Rochester.

A collision in the New York state waterway, resulting in the sinking of a barge of sulphur ore in the canal one mile east of the Genesee river, near Rochester, has again tied up water traffic between Buffalo and the Atlantic seaboard.

The steamer Huntington County, coming west from New York with an oil cargo, Tuesday afternoon struck and sank the sulphur laden barge, Frank P. Scully, operated by the Hedger Transportation company of New York city, en route to Cleveland via the Buffalo terminal of the barge canal.

Canal officials Wednesday said the East stop gate would be closed and the water drawn from a three-mile level, in an effort to enable cutters to place a temporary patch on the wooden barge and float it.

Underwriters estimate that the boat may be repaired and floated by Wednesday night, allowing the resumption of east and westbound traffic that will have been tied up for approximately 60 hours.

ERIE ROAD TO GIVE UP EAST BUFFALO AGENCY

No Tickets Sold for Two Months So P.S.C. Grants Petition.

From the Albany Bureau

ALBANY, Sept. 28.—Permission has been granted the Erie Railroad company by the Public service commission to discontinue the services of the passenger ticket agent at its East Buffalo station, provided that a passenger shelter is maintained there in a heated and lighted condition when necessary. The shelter is to be opened at least one hour before the arrival of each passenger train stopping at the station and is to be located at or near Babcock street. The falling off of business is given as the explanation.

Evidence submitted before Commissioner William R. Pooley of Buffalo, showed that ticket sales dropped from $1949 in 1925 to $750 in 1926 and no tickets were sold during July and August this year. Receipts from milk shipments dropped from $3598 in 1925 to $1539 in 1926, no milk being shipped or received during June, July and August this year. Seven pieces of baggage were handled in 1926 and two in the first eight months in 1927.

VIEW BUSINESS FORECASTS

Great Lakes Shippers' Advisory Board and Other Experts Meet.

DETROIT, Sept. 28.—The Great Lakes Shippers' Regional Advisory board, comprised of railroad heads and industrial executives and representing industries jointly involving several billion dollars, convened this morning in the Statler hotel, to consider the national forecast of business.

It is believed that such forecasts, which are considered by Secretary Herbert Hoover as a positive objective of the federal government, will act as beacon lights to the business men and prove effective in absorbing the shocks that business formerly was heir to because of the periodical shortages of transportation and various other delays.

One of the innovations of the new board is the organized banking committee, which has been formed, with Fred J. Parker, vice president of the First National bank of Detroit, as chairman. This is the first time that the banking committee has functioned with the board.

COAL DOCK CREW LAID OFF.
SANDUSKY, O., Sept. 28.—One of three crews employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad at its coal docks was released temporarily Tuesday because of a lull in coal shipments. The cut affected about 25 men. Despite the present period of depression, the coal movement on Lake Erie this season is ahead of the figures of last year. Coal dumpings for the season up to September 12 totaled 24,000,906 tons, compared with 20,031,256 tons in 1926 and 17,909,987 tons for

GRAIN MOVEMENT IS EXPECTED TO BE LIGHT

Temporary Lull Attributed to Late Canadian Crop.

The grain movement Wednesday morning seemed to have exhausted the energy that carried it to such high figures during the last few days. It was reported on reliable authority that the movement will continue to be light for another week, perhaps two days, with the fall rush beginning about October 10.

The temporary lull, after all appearances pointed to a heavy movement to the end of the season, is attributed to the heavy handling of the Canadian crops. The movement ordered to Canadian rail routes by the Canadian railway commission has not taken from the lake trade any of the tonnage it always receives. It is said, and by the end of the season this statement is expected to be proven by figures.

Tuesday and Wednesday, greater activity was recorded at the head of the lakes than during the few days preceding this week. Several new vessels were sent out from Duluth, with cargoes assigned to Buffalo, while receipts at Port William and Port Arthur showed quite a spurt. During the 24 hours ending Monday midnight, 1640 cars of grain were delivered to these ports by the Canadian Pacific and the Canadian National lines. Several vessels that had been tied up because of a lack of cargo were ordered to re-ports and the movement through these ports is expected to gradually increase.

Last week's shipments from the Canadian head of the lakes was recorded as the worst so far this season, when only 17,700,238 bushels of grain were sent forward. An increase was made in stocks as receipts were 3,932,474 bushels bringing the total amount of grain in store to 6,306,708 bushels.

Chartering More Active.

Chartering at the head of the lakes was more active Tuesday and several vessels were ordered for prompt and future loading. A rate of seven cents, the highest quoted so far this season, was paid Tuesday for cargoes to load the first part of October and hold at Buffalo. Seventy-two vessels were placed.

The Canadian route from Buffalo Wednesday was scheduled to receive nearly 500,000 bushels of wheat and rye. Six cargoes were slated to go across the lakes, with the possibility of several others also clearing before Thursday morning. Tuesday only two vessels cleared for Montreal with 170,000 bushels of wheat. High winds at the Canadian ports kept several vessels that were ordered from reporting for their cargoes.

Fleets for Barge Canal.

The Barge canal Tuesday night received its first cargo of the week. Wednesday, several fleets were being made up for shipments to New York, but word of the blockade in the canal near Rochester, due to the sinking of the barge, will hold these fleets up until Friday. Receipts at the canal terminal will be very light this week.

Tuesday, the elevators unloaded 1,630,000 bushels of grain, making receipts for the first two days of the week go above 3,000,000 bushels. There were eight vessels, with nearly 700,000 bushels of grain in the lineup at the elevators Wednesday morning, and 11 vessels, with cargoes aggregating nearly 3,000,000 bushels, were reported on route to this port.

District of New York—Port of New York.

I, O. H. Lawrence Master of the Ship Webster do solemnly, sincerely and truly swear that the following List or Manifest, subscribed by me, and now delivered by me to the Collector of the Customs of the Collection District of New York, is a full and perfect list of all the passengers taken on board of the said Webster at Liverpool from which port said Webster has now arrived; and that on said list is truly designated the age, the sex, and the occupation of each of said passengers, the part of the vessel occupied by each during the passage, the country to which each belongs, and also the country of which it is intended by each to become an inhabitant; and that said List or Manifest truly sets forth the number of said passengers who have died on said voyage, and the names and ages of those who died.

So help me God.

CAPT. J. J. CASSIN

Article from newspaper (name unknown) (month, date unknown) year 1927. (Obituary) Probably Buffalo or other New York newspaper.

BUFFALO PILOT DIES SUDDENLY AT CORNWALL

Captain John J. Cassin succumbs to attack of pneumonia; leaves widow, son.

A telegram received yesterday morning by George D. MacDonald, Buffalo manager of the Erie & Saint Lawrence Corporation, announced the death of Capt. John J. Cassin of Buffalo, first officer on the motorship I.L.I. No. 103, at Cornwall, Ontario, on Monday night. Dr. Kilgour, one of the physicians at the hospital in which Capt. Cassin passed away, said pneumonia was the direct cause of death. He became ill after passing Cardinal, Ontario, and Capt. William McFadden, also of Buffalo, commander of the ship, had him taken off at Cornwall and placed in a hospital.

Capt. John J. Cassin, who was 65 years old, was one of the best-known shipmasters and general pilots along the lakes. He sailed some of the package-freight steamers out of Buffalo several years ago and later went to Chicago, where he commanded passenger steamers out of that port. In 1903 he commanded the steamers Darius Cole and State of New York plying between Buffalo and Crystal Beach. During the war Capt. Cassin piloted many of the steamships built here and at other ports during that period through the Welland Canal-Saint Lawrence River route to the Atlantic seaboard.

In 1922 Capt. Cassin piloted the I.L.I. motorships down the lakes to Buffalo, when they were first brought out. He had been with the company off and on since then.

He is survived by his widow and a son, John, fourteen years old, who lives at 722 Plymouth Avenue. The body is expected
Funeral arrangements will be

Fort Wayne, In. 46815

Dear Ms. Springer:

We are sorry we have not been able to find any current information regarding John J. Cassin, but due to a fire in our office some time ago and the fact we had to relocate, we lost most of our old records.

We wish we could have been of more help and we wish you good luck in your research.

Sincerely,

Daniel Friedberg, PGM
Grand Secretary

NINTH REGIMENT OF CAVALRY (VETERAN).

Stoneman's Cavalry; Westfield Cavalry.

Colonel John Beardsley received authority from the State to recruit this regiment; organization commenced at Westfield and was completed at Albany. It received numerical designation November 23, 1861, and November 27, 1861, a number of the men enlisted for the United States Lancers, an incomplete organization, which Col. Josef Smolinski, under authority from the War Department dated August 7, 1861, endeavored to recruit, were assigned to it as part of Company M. The companies were mustered in the service of the United States for three years, between September 9 and December 13, 1861. A small portion of the men, claiming to have been fraudulently enlisted, were discharged under the orders of the Secretary of War, dated April 7 and 9, 1862. At the expiration of its term of service, those entitled thereto were mustered out, and the regiment retained in service. March 29, 1865, it was consolidated into nine companies, and received by transfer the battalion of the 4th N. Y. Volunteer Cavalry, as Companies B, E and L.

The companies were recruited principally: A at LaGrange, Linden, Pavilion, Perry, Warsaw and Wyoming; B at Little Valley, Ashford, East Otto, Mansfield and Sugar Grove; C at Jamestown and Westfield; D at Brockton, Smith Mills, Stockton and Westfield; E at East Randolph, Sherman, Harmony, Clymer and Napoli; F at Albany, Ashville, Busti, Farmington, Panama, Sugar Grove and Westfield; G at Sheldon, Java and Westfield; H at Castile, Dunkirk, Irvin, Hermitage, LaGrange, Sheldon, Silver Creek, Warsaw and Wyoming; I at Westfield, Ripley, Mayville and Harbor Creek, and North East, Pa.; K at Fredonia, Forestville and Cherry Creek; L at Russell, and M at New York city, Rouse's Point, Troy and Geneva.

The regiment left the State November 26, 1861, and served at Washington, D. C., from December, 1861. March 9, 1862, Companies C, F, K and M were detached and distributed in detachments among the batteries of the Reserve Artillery, with which they served until May 22, 1862; the remaining eight companies performed during that time duty as train-guard in the Army of the Potomac. In June, 1862, it having returned from the Peninsula, the regiment was mounted at Washington, D. C., and assigned to the Cavalry Brigade, 1st Corps, Army Virginia; it served in the 1st Stahel's Division, 11th Corps, from September, 1862; in the 3d Brigade, Cavalry Division, Army of the Potomac, from October, 1862; in the Cavalry Brigade, 1st Division, 11th Corps, Army of the Potomac, from November, 1862; in the 1st Brigade, 1st Division, Cavalry Corps, Army of the Potomac, from February, 1863; in the 2d Brigade, 1st Division, Cavalry Corps, Army of the Potomac, from May, 1863; in the Army of the Shenandoah, from October, 1864; with the Army of the Potomac, from March, 1865, and July 17, 1865, commanded by Col. George S. Nichols, it was honorably discharged and mustered out at Cloud's Mills, Va.

The regiment lost during its service by death, killed in action, 3 officers, 60 enlisted men; died of wounds received in action, 5 officers, 29 enlisted men; died of disease and other causes, 5 officers, 122 enlisted men; total, 13 officers, 211 enlisted men; aggregated 224; of whom 16 enlisted men died in the hands of the enemy.

It, or portions of it, took part in the following engagements, etc.:

New York 1970

Superior Court of the City of New York.

IN THE MATTER OF

John Cassin, Minor.
On his application to become a Citizen of the United States.

STATE OF NEW YORK,

City and County of New York.

403 E. 14th St. N.Y. (Cultury)

being duly sworn, doth depose and say, that he is well acquainted with the above named applicant; that the said applicant has resided in the United States for three years next preceding his arrival at the age of twenty-one years; that he has continued to reside therein to the present time; that he has resided five years within the United States, including three years of his minority, and that he has resided in the State of New York one year at least, immediately preceding this application; and that during that time he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; and deponent verily believes, that for three years next preceding this application, it has been the real and honest intention of the said applicant to become a citizen of the United States.

Carol Springer,

Thank you for your
February 22 letter received here on March 6 and for your I.C. coupons.
You ask about CASSIN name ~~from~~ listing families from Co. Kilkenny & Co.
Tipperrary. I have not been able to find out much about my ancestor one William
Cassin who was born c/1810 in Maryboro
Queen's County, now Portlaoise, Leix or Leix County. He came to New Zealand as a pensioner soldier - a Fencible - in 1849 and, strangely, my grandfather John Thomas was also born on the ship coming out as you and John J. apparently was. I enclose "Some Notes on Cousins" I have compiled which set out most of the information I have.
William left no papers of any sort and it is only through L.D.S. microfilm records have I been able to trace his soldier's records. N.Z. was not founded until 1840 so early records are scarce. I have searched Tithe Applotment Records & Griffith's

My dear Mr. Cassin

Thank you for your letter of the 12th inst. received on the 14th and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration and that you will be kept advised of the result of the same as soon as it is received. I am, Sir, very respectfully,

Yours truly,
J. H. Cassin

Enclosed for you are two copies of the report of the Committee on the subject of the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Society, which you will find of interest and importance. I am, Sir, very respectfully,

Yours truly,
J. H. Cassin

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 12th

inst. and in reply to inform you that

SOME NOTES ON CASSINS

Compiled from various sources shown

McLysaght
An extract from (1) "Irish Families" by ~~McIntyre~~ indicates that Cassin is a variant of O'Cassin, Cashin, MacCashin, MacCaisin, a variant used in the south of Ireland, and possibly equated with Cashman. MacCashins were hereditary physicians of Upper Ossary which is an old name for what is now County Laoighis or Leix. (renamed from Queen's County in 1922). The Queen's County Book of Survey and Distribution of 1640 states that there were many MacCashins who were "Irish Papist proprietors" in that County. As early as 1304 in County Kildare and in 1331 in North Tipperary (which adjoins to Laoighis) the name occurs. The Hearth Money Rolls of 1666, (an early form of census for taxing purposes) also indicate numerous distributions of the name.

The most notable of the aforesaid physicians was a Conly Cashin who wrote a medical tract in Latin in 1667 and there are other references to the name.

At the end of the 18th century there was a firm of ship owners at Waterford (county Wexford) named Cashin, Wyee and Quan, the Cashin's arriving from Kelshane in County Tipperary.

Early references to O'Cashins seem to all relate to South Munster. Now, place names associated with Cashin appear to be, Ballycasheen near Killorne, Ballycashin in County Waterford and possibly Ballycasheen in County Clare, which had a tribal group in the Sept of O'Cassin to which a Bishop John O'Cassin, who resigned the see of Killald in 1490, belonged. (1)

A letter from the parish priest, Portlaoighis, (2) Rev. Thomas Browne on August 17, 1971 states that the parish Register of St Joseph's parish goes back only to 1826 so its not possible to check back on William Cassin's parents from this source. Father Browne says that "Cashin" is the local name and agrees with the supposition that Cassin is a variant of Cashin. The last of the Cashins left the parish in 1914 but there are relatives who know something of their history.

William Cassin was born in what was originally called Maryboro', Queen's County Ireland now called Portlaoighis, (Laoighis) County, Eire, the name being changed in 1922 when the Irish Free State was formed. It is about 60 miles south-west of Dublin. He was born on 24.11.1800. (3)

He joined the Army in 1826 and at the time of his discharge in 1847 was in the 48 Regiment of Foot and had served for 21 years and 123 days of which 10 years had been in India, and 1 year 3 months in Gibraltar. He was admitted as a pensioner on 19.7.1847 and his rank was a Sergeant. He was awarded a Chelsea pension of 2/- per day. The description on his pension payment record held in Archives in New Zealand says that he "walks lamely because of rheumatism, is 5'6" in height with brown hair grey eyes and fair complexion" and had a good conduct medal and a gratuity. (4)

(5) On the 9th May 1849 the War Office File (number 4/285) dealing with the formation of the 8th Division of the Royal New Zealand Fencibles has a letter from A.M. Tulloch, Lt. Colonel showing that William Cassin 48 Reg. of Ft. was anxious to proceed to New Zealand and instructs the S.O.I., Dublin to forward him and his family to Tilbury immediately with the understanding that he (Cassin) would have to pay for the passage and rations of 1 child, the amount to be deducted from his pension. William Cassin was at that time residing in Richmond Barracks. Payment was to be £7.4.9.

giving his age as 17, so birthdate of 1800 is probably wrong.

It should be recorded that he was not in the nominal role of Fencibles as supplied by the War Office to the Colonial Secretary.

(5) The Oriental Queen, on which the 8th Div. of Fencibles were to embark, was at Gravesend on Saturday May 12, 1849 and sailed under Captain Samuel Radford Thomas with Captain Haultain as Staff Officer, (6) [Captain Haultain was in 1858 a Resident Magistrate at Howick], (7) on May 17, with 63 married couples, 11 single men, 10 single women, and 50 boys and 44 girls from 1 to 14, and 7 boys and 10 girls under 1 year. The passenger lists of the Oriental Queen, one for embarking and one for disembarking, show on the embarkation one that William Cassin, wife Elizabeth and 3 children Emma, William Henry and Clarissa were a "late entry", as their names were added to the main list out of context and of alphabetical order.

(7) The Oriental Queen was a ship of 543 tons, 132 feet length of lower deck, 26'8" greatest breadth of lower deck and was built in Cork in 1842. The charter documents (I.A. reference 49/1893) are dated April 14, 1849 and provide for the carriage of 180 passengers at the rate of £14.9.6. per adult passenger with the Commanding Officer and Surgeon and their families to be provided with passenger accommodation and mess at the rate of £70 per adult passenger. The charter was between Her Majesty's Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners and Lachlans and Macleod, Ship Brokers of London. The document lists mess utensils to be supplied, dietary scale during voyage, medical comforts to be issued "at the discretion of the surgeon", and the list of medicines to be put on board.

As far as I am able to find out, the ship made a direct sailing to New Zealand arriving in Auckland on September 18, 1849. During the voyage 3 adults died and 5 children were born, 4 female and 1 male. It is presumed that this male is John Thomas Cassin who is listed in an old family bible as having been born at sea on 16.3.1849. I have been unable to confirm this although Thos. Hunt, Surgeon Superintendent to the Oriental Queen did, on September 28, 1849, in Auckland aboard the Oriental Queen, write to the Colonial Secretary enclosing a list of the names and ages of those who died and of those who were born on the voyage. . . is not with his letter the disembarkation list only shows those who died.(7)

(8) The Auckland Provincial Gazette of 1853 to 1858 lists "William Cassin" gardener and householder.

(9) G.G.M. Mitchell quotes in his book, The "Catholic Church in Onehunga", that in 1854, 55 boys and 35 girls were attending the St Mary's school in Onehunga. Classes were located in the church building under the headmastership of Mr J. Cassin. This initial appears to be wrong as the only "J" Cassin alive then was John Thomas, a boy of 5. (10) An obituary notice of a Mrs Margaret O'Keefe (nee Campbell) (N.Z. Herald 12/10/44) who was born in Onehunga in 1854 tells of her attending a school which was conducted in an old pensioner's cottage in Queen Street Onehunga by Mr William Cassin. ^{before} It would seem that William may have conducted a school ~~after~~ the Sisters of Mercy assumed charge of the St Mary's school in Onehunga in 1864.

(11) On July 5, 1856 William Cassin was issued title to Lot 3, Section 17 Onehunga Village" . . . "on termination of the period for which he was enrolled" . . . (Fencibles served for 7 years).

(11) On the same day he transferred part of it to a Mr Williams and on 20.10.1874 transferred the residue to his son William Henry. The land is now occupied part by a borough car park and part by the Onehunga Working Mens Club.

CAS 2

- 4 - [4] A letter from Sir Bernard Fergusson to me 18/7/72 states this is not correct - his kid all accounts for 2 1/2 centuries

(17) William Henry married on 20.4.1868^x Hannah Fergusson and they had approximately 12 children. (18) Hannah was a child of Hana Kamau and Samuel Bowen Fergusson [a younger brother of Sir James Fergusson, an early Governor General of New Zealand.] He appears to have spent most of his life in the Pirongia and Otorohanga areas but he is listed in 1882 as a freeholder of 110 acres in Manakau County.

John Thomas was born at sea on the voyage to New Zealand and was married in 1873^x (19) to Jane McMahon who was born in Onehunga, the daughter of Andrew and Jane McMahon. (19) Andrew McMahon was a Sergeant in the Fencibles. They had 7 children, the first 2 being born in Onehunga and Parawai and the rest in Hawkes Bay. John Thomas was a hotelkeeper when he was married in 1873 (19) and had the Queen's Head Hotel in Queen Street, Grahamstown, Thames in 1875.

Frederick Cassin was born in Onehunga and in 1875 had a hotel in Albert St in Thames (2). He did not marry and was drowned with others while trying to save some marooned people at Clive in 1897 (21).

William Cassin appears to have made an overseas trip and returned to New Zealand in 1871 (22). The Daily Southern Cross on 26.9.1871 lists as arrivals in Auckland from the 'Countess of Kintore', William, Elizabeth, Hannah, Catherine and Emma Cassin. Presumably William and Elizabeth are Husband and wife, Hannah, the wife of William Henry and Emma, William's daughter, who had accompanied him to New Zealand in 1849. It is not known whose daughter Catherine was. It is possible she could have been Hannah's daughter Kate Mona who was born 12.4.1871 at Castledown on the Isle of Man. She would have only been a babe-in-arms then and it was unusual to list infants by name on passenger lists.

(23) A coat of arms was granted to Cassin's (and presumably the variations of the Name) in 1650. I believe it still exists and the present day Cassin's could have a claim to it. It is described as follows:-

Arms: OR (Gold), three piles gules (red), on a chief of the second, a lion passant argent (Silver).

Crest: An arm holding a sword in an oak bush all proper.

19A: F. Cassin had (in 1887) married Rosa Smith - Schildvan - only boy = G. C. Cassin killed WWI - relatives of daughters, in chch with other Cassins = not known relatives but 2 brothers from same County

24. ²⁴ = It seems likely that "William" was really "William Henry" & Hannah his wife, not Elizabeth as stated above. July 1972 and March 1976

(12) The electoral rolls of 1865/66 and 1869/70 lists William Cassin freeholder of the above land as among "those qualified to vote at the election of Members for the House of Representatives for the electoral district of Onehunga".

Voting qualification was by property qualification in those days.

(13) Pension payments to William Cassin show that in October 1869 he was paid at Wellington, from October 1869 to October 1879 at Parawai (near Thames), from 1879 to January 1881 at Thames, and from October 1881 until his death in March 1886 at Napier.

(14) William Cassin married, on the 24 October 1831, Elizabeth Byrnes at Bellary, Mysore State, India. It was a military wedding conducted by Rev. John Reid, missionary and the witnesses were J. and Eleanor Robinson. William was stated to be a bachelor and a lance sergeant and his wife, Elizabeth, a spinster. An entry in the old family bible records her as having been born in Canterbury on 18.10.1817.

The bible lists 10 children of the marriage: (14)

- Mary Anne Heroine born 29.3.35 at Gibraltar and died 7.9.36 at Rochdale.
- Clarissa born 7.12.37 at sea and who died 28.7.58^x in Onehunga
- William Halswell born 17.5.39 at Gibraltar died 2.11.39 at Gibraltar.
- Emma born 23.3.41 at Youghal and who died 21.1.1900^x at Hastings.
- Elizabeth born 17.5.43 at Guernsey, died ?
- William Henry born 4.5.1845[#] at Hull, died 19.9.90^x at Alexandra (Waikato) later called Pirongia.

The requested search for your ancestor has now been completed. Maryborough, Laois is listed in the Index to Towns and Townlands of Ireland as being in the Barony of Maryborough East, Civil parish of Borris and Unions of Mountmelick and Abbeyleix. The Index to Surnames for Co. Laois listed no Cassins for this parish. This index roughly covers the years 1820 - 1860 and is based upon the Church Tithe Applotment Survey c. 1820's and Griffith's Primary Valuation of Land and Tenements c. 1850's. The only parish in the Barony of Maryborough East which lists the name is Kilcolmanbane. These were checked in Griffith's Valuation (1850) and were Matthew S. Cassan, Esq. and Joseph Cassan, both being landowners. A list of parishes containing the surname were made and the entries checked. Griffith's Primary Valuation was checked firstly.

Aghaboe Parish, 1850

As William Cassin's occupation was listed as a gardener he may have lived on an estate and not have been included in the survey. Also there is a possibility that some of the above entries were related to him since only the head of the household is listed in these surveys.

The Catholic parish register of Maryborough (Portlaoise) did not commence until 1826, too late to record the birth of William Cassin if Catholic. The Church of Ireland register, which commenced 1793, is in ^{local} local custody and it is suggested that if W. Cassin was a Protestant that you write directly to the local Rector, Rev. S.F. Gillmor, St. Peter, Maryborough, Co. Laois, asking him to check the register on your behalf and enclosing a small fee to cover this (£2). It should be possible to find a record of the births of his brothers and sisters and also his parents marriage.

We regret the delay in dealing with your report and hope you find it of interest in your research on your family.

Note: Initial reply said no info & bill for £25 - this came 2 years later - note no dates mentioned
